Whitehall, July 26.

TO the Intent that no Perſon may through Ignorance of the Law or Inadvertency omit complying with the Directions of the Act herein after ſet forth, and incur the Penalties thereby inflicted, it is thought proper to inſert the ſame at large in this Gazette; and all Perſons whatſoever, both Men and Women, in England, Scotland, Wales, and the Town of Berwick upon Tweed, reſpectively, being of the Age of 18 or upwards, and not having taken the Oaths therein mentioned before the Firſt Day of the laſt Seſſion of Parliament, are to take Notice that they are obliged to take the ſaid Oaths within the Time, and in ſome of the Courts preſcribed for that Purpoſe, at their Peril, without any Summons or Notice for their ſo doing, or in Default thereof to Regiſter their Names and real Eſtates in ſuch Manner as the ſaid Act requires, under the Penalty of forfeiting all ſuch real Eſtate as they, or any Perſon or Perſons in Truſt for them, ſhall be ſeized of, or otherwiſe intereſted in, at the Time when they ought to have made ſuch Regiſter.

Anno Nono Georgii Regis.

An Act to oblige all Perſons, being Papiſts, in that Part of Great Britain called Scotland, and all Perſons in Great Britain, refuſing or neglecting to take the Oaths appointed for the Security of His Majeſty's Perſon and Government, by ſeveral Acts herein mentioned, to Regiſter their Names and Real Eſtates.

WHereas ſince His Majeſty's Happy Acceſſion to the Crown of theſe Realms, divers Rebellions, Inſurrections, and Traiterous Conſpiracies have been entred into, and carried on, for the Deſtruction of His Majeſty's moſt ſacred Perſon and Government, the overturning our Religious and Civil Rights, and for placing a Popiſh Pretender on the Throne: And whereas the Papiſts, and other Perſons, refuſing to take the Oaths appointed by Law to be taken to His Majeſty, have enjoyed, and do ſtill enjoy the Protection and Benefits of the Government, as well as the reſt of His Majeſty's Subjects, yet have been Notoriouſly concerned in Contriving, Stirring up, and Supporting the ſaid Rebellions, Inſurrections, and Conſpiracies, by which it moſt manifeſtly appears, that they take themſelves to be obliged, by the Principles they profeſs, to be Enemies to His Majeſty and the preſent Happy Eſtabliſhment; and foraſmuch as it is highly reaſonable, that the Government ſhould be throughly acquainted with, and apprized of the Number, Names, and Real Eſtates of ſuch diſaffected Perſons, as aforeſaid, in order more effectually to prevent, diſappoint or puniſh the like Traiterous Attempts for the future, in ſuch Manner, as by the Wiſdom of Parliament ſhall hereafter be thought proper; Be it therefore Enacted by the King's moſt Excellent Majeſty, by and with the Advice and Conſent of the Lords Spiritual and Temporal, and Commons in this preſent Parliament aſſembled, and by the Authority of the ſame, That all and every Perſon and Perſons whatſoever, inhabiting in that Part of Great Britain called England, Wales, or Town of Berwick upon Tweed, who ſhall be at the Age of Eighteen Years or upward, not having already taken the Oaths appointed to be taken in and by an Act made in the Firſt Year of His Majeſty's Reign, [Intituled, An Act for the further Security of His Majeſty's Perſon and Government, and the Succeſſion of the Crown in the Heirs of the late Princeſs Sophia being Proteſtants, and for extinguiſhing the Hopes of the pretended Prince of Wales, and his open and ſecret Abettors;] and who ſhall neglect or refuſe to take the ſaid Oaths on or before the Twenty fifth Day of December, One thouſand ſeven hundred and twenty three, in any of His Majeſty's Courts of Record at Weſtminſter, or at the General or Quarter-Seſſions for the County, City, Town, Liberty, or Diviſion, where ſuch Perſon or Perſons ſhall live or inhabit, all and every ſuch Perſon or Perſons, who ſhall neglect or refuſe to take the ſaid Oaths by the Time aforeſaid, ſhall, on or before the Twenty fifth Day of March, One thouſand ſeven hundred and twenty four, Regiſter, or cauſe to be Regiſtred, their reſpective Names and Real Eſtates, in ſuch and the ſame Manner and Form, as Papiſts were obliged and directed to Regiſter their Names and Real Eſtates, in and by an Act paſſed in the Firſt Year of His Majeſty's Reign [Intituled, An Act to oblige Papiſts to Regiſter their Names and Real Eſtates;] and alſo by another Act made and paſſed in the Third Year of His ſaid Majeſty's Reign, [Intituled, An Act for explaining an Act paſſed in the laſt Seſſion of Parliament, Intituled, An Act to oblige Papiſts to Regiſter their Names and Real Eſtates, and for enlarging the Time for ſuch Regiſtring, and for ſecuring Purchaſes made to the Proteſtants;] and the reſpective Officers, appointed by the ſaid laſt mentioned Acts, paſſed in the Firſt and Third Years of His Majeſty's Reign, appointed and directed to take and receive the Regiſters of the Names and Real Eſtates of ſuch Papiſts, are hereby authorized and required to take and receive the Regiſter of the Names and Real Eſtates, which are by virtue of this Act appointed to be Regiſtred, in ſuch and the ſame Manner and Form, as by the ſaid laſt mentioned Acts are preſcribed in relation to Papiſts; and ſhall ſign and return true Copies of the ſame into His Majeſty's Court of Exchequer at Weſtminſter, on or before the Twenty ninth Day of September, One thouſand ſeven hundred and twenty four.

And it is hereby further Enacted, That every Article, Clauſe, and Thing, in the ſaid laſt mentioned Acts contained, relating to the Regiſtring of the Names and Real Eſtates of Papiſts, or to receiving or taking the ſaid Regiſters, and the examining upon Oath, or otherwiſe, into the Truth and Reality of the ſame, ſhall extend and be conſtrued to extend to all and every the Regiſters required and directed to be made and received, by and in purſuance of this Act, in as full and ample Manner, as if the ſame were herein again particularly recited and enacted.

And be it further Enacted by the Authority aforeſaid, That all and every Papiſt, or reputed Papiſt, or other Perſon or Perſons profeſſing the Popiſh Religion, and all and every other Perſon or Perſons whatſoever, inhabiting in that Part of Great Britain called Scotland, who ſhall be at the Age of Eighteen Years or upwards, not having already taken and ſubſcribed the Oath of Allegiance, ſubſcribed the Aſſurance, and taken and ſigned the Oath of Abjuration, as directed to be taken and ſubſcribed by ſuch Perſons, who bear any Office under His Majeſty, by the aforeſaid Act made in the Firſt Year of His Majeſty's Reign [Intituled, An Act for the further Security of His Majeſty's Perſon and Government, and the Succeſſion of the Crown in the Heirs of the late Princeſs Sophia being Proteſtants, and for extinguiſhing the Hopes of the pretended Prince of Wales, and his open and ſecret Abettors;] and who ſhall neglect or refuſe to take and ſubſcribe the ſaid Oaths, and ſubſcribe the ſaid Aſſurance on or before the Twenty fifth Day of March, One thouſand ſeven hundred and twenty four, before and in the Court of the Lords of Seſſion, or the Court of Juſticiary, or the Court of Exchequer in Scotland, or before the Juſtices of the Peace at their Quarter-

And be it further Enacted by the Authority aforeſaid, That every Article, Clauſe and Thing, in the ſaid laſt mentioned Act contained, relating to the receiving, taking and entring the Regiſters of the Names and Real Eſtates of Papiſts, and the examining upon Oath, or otherwiſe, into the Truth and Reality of the ſame, ſhall extend and be conſtrued to extend to all and every the Regiſtrations required and directed to be made and received in that Part of Great Britain called Scotland, by and in purſuance of this Act, and to give the ſame Powers, Authorities, and Directions, to the ſaid Sheriffs, or Sheriffs Deputes reſpectively, as by the ſaid laſt mentioned Act are or were given to the Juſtices of the Peace in their open Quarter-Seſſions, and Clerks of the Peace of the ſeveral Counties in that Part of Great Britain called England, in as full and ample Manner, as if the ſame were herein again particularly recited and enacted.

And be it further Enacted, That in caſe any Perſon or Perſons, who is or are hereby directed and required to take and ſubſcribe the Oaths and Aſſurance reſpectively, as aforeſaid, or for want thereof, to Regiſter his, her, or their Names and Real Eſtates, ſhall not take and ſubſcribe ſuch Oaths and Aſſurance reſpectively, or Regiſter, or cauſe to be Regiſtred, their Names and Real Eſtates, in ſuch Manner, as in this Act before is directed, within the reſpective Times herein before limited and appointed for the doing thereof, then, and in every ſuch Caſe, the Perſon or Perſons neglecting or refuſing to take and ſubſcribe ſuch Oaths and Aſſurance reſpectively, or for want thereof, to make ſuch Regiſtry, as aforeſaid, ſhall forfeit the Fee-Simple and Inheritance of, or ſuch Eſtate and Intereſt in all ſuch Lands, Tenements, and Hereditaments not Regiſtred, whereof he, ſhe, or they, or any Perſon or Perſons in Truſt for him, her, or them, was or were ſeized in Fee-Simple, or otherwiſe intereſted in at the Time of ſuch Default, as aforeſaid; Two Third Parts thereof to the King, and the other Third Part thereof to ſuch Perſon or Perſons, being a Proteſtant or Proteſtants, who ſhall ſue for ſuch Forfeited Lands, Tenements, or Hereditaments, as ſhall lie in England, the Dominion of Wales, or Town of Berwick upon Tweed, in any ſuch Court, and by ſuch Ways or Means, as are directed by the ſaid recited Act to oblige Papiſts to Regiſter their Names and Real Eſtates; and ſhall ſue in His Majeſty's Court of Exchequer in Scotland, for ſuch Forfeited Lands, Tenements, or Hereditaments, as ſhall lye in that Part of Great Britain called Scotland.

Provided always, That nothing in this Act contained ſhall extend, or be conſtrued to extend, to any Perſon or Perſons now beyond the Seas, who by virtue of this Act ought to take and ſubſcribe the ſaid Oaths and Aſſurance reſpectively, or make ſuch Regiſtry, as aforeſaid, ſo as ſuch Perſon or Perſons do, within Six Months after his, her, or their Return into Great Britain, take or ſubſcribe the ſaid Oaths and Aſſurance reſpectively, or make ſuch Regiſtry, as aforeſaid, according to the Appointment of this Act.

And be it further Enacted by the Authority aforeſaid, That if any Perſon or Perſons, being Proteſtants, in that Part of Great Britain called Scotland, hath or have taken and ſubſcribed, or ſhall, within the reſpective Times by this Act limited, take and ſubſcribe the Oath appointed to be taken by Miniſters and Preachers in Scotland, by an Act of the Fifth Year of His preſent Majeſty's Reign [Intituled, An Act for making more effectual the Laws appointing the Oaths for Security of the Government, to be taken by Miniſters and Preachers in Churches and Meeting-Houſes in Scotland] inſtead and in lieu of the Abjuration Oath, ſuch Perſon or Perſons ſhall be deemed and taken to have complied with the true Intent and Meaning of this Act, in as full and ample Manner, as if ſuch Perſon had taken the ſaid Oath of Abjuration, and ſhall not incur any of the Penalties or Forfeitures inflicted by this Act, or be obliged to Regiſter his, her, or their Names, or Real Eſtates; any Thing herein contained to the contrary notwithſtanding.

And for the better Diſcovery of Papiſts and reputed Papiſts in that Part of Great Britain called Scotland, Be it further Enacted by the Authority aforeſaid, That all Papiſts, reputed Papiſts, and Perſons profeſſing the Popiſh Religion in Scotland, as aforeſaid, ſhall, at the time of taking and ſubſcribing the Oaths of Allegiance and Abjuration, and repeating and ſubſcribing the Aſſurance, as is herein before directed and required, make and ſubſcribe the Declaration called the Formula, as the ſame is recited in an Act of Parliament of Scotland, paſſed in the Year One thouſand ſeven hundred [Intituled. Act for preventing the Growth of Popery;] and in caſe ſuch Papiſt, or reputed Papiſt, ſhall neglect or refuſe to make and ſubſcribe the ſaid Formula, at ſuch Time and Times as are herein before directed, ſuch Papiſt, or reputed Papiſt, ſhall be obliged to Regiſter, or cauſe to be Regiſtred, his, her, or their Names and Real Eſtates, in Manner and Form, as is herein before directed, or for want thereof, ſhall be liable to and incur the like Penalties and Forfeitures, as are by this Act inflicted and enacted againſt ſuch Perſons as ſhall neglect or refuſe to take the ſeveral Oaths appointed by this Act to be taken, or in caſe of ſuch Refuſal, ſhall neglect to make, or cauſe to be made, ſuch Regiſter as aforeſaid; any Thing herein contained to the contrary notwithſtanding.

Whitehall, Auguſt 2.

An humble Addreſs to His Majeſty from the Governour, Council and Repreſentatives of the Province of New-York in America, convened in General Aſſembly, the 25th of May 1723, has been tranſmitted hither, in order to be preſented to His Majeſty.

Madrid,

Madrid, July 26, N.S. An Expreſs from Cadiz has brought an Account, that on the 19th Inſtant two Ships arrived there from Vera Cruz, very richly laden, their Cargo being valued at above ten Millions of Pieces of Eight; the King's Share of which will, as it is computed, amount to near one Million and an Half. The Marqueſs de Valero, late Viceroy of Mexico, is come with theſe Ships. The King of Spain's Decree, dated at Balſain the 18th of laſt Month, and newly publiſhed here, relating to the Opening of Commerce with France upon certain Advice that the Plague has for ſome time intirely ceaſed there, contains the following Reſtrictions with regard to Ships from that Kingdom entring the Ports of Spain.

All French Ships, or Ships of any other Nation, coming from the Ports of France in the Ocean, into thoſe of Spain, with Goods and Manufactures of any kind from the Provinces on that Side of France, or from any other Province of that Kingdom where the Plague has not been, ſhall be admitted without Quarantain in the uſual Manner.

Ships coming from the Ports of Provence, with Corn, liquid Goods, and others not ſuſceptible of Contagion, ſhall after they have been duely viſited, be admitted, the Perſons on board them with their wearing Apparel firſt undergoing a Quarantain of ten Days.

All Sorts of Goods ſuſceptible of Contagion, which ſhall be brought from the ſaid Ports of Provence to ſuch Ports of Spain where are Lazarettos, ſhall be carried into the Lazarettos, and there opened, aired, and perfumed for the Space of 40 Days (which Term may hereafter be ſhortned as from time to time ſhall be judged convenient,) and then they ſhall be admitted to Commerce. For the preſent, Cotton unmanufactured, brought from any Port of the Mediterranean, ſhall not be admitted: But Cotton Spun, or Wove, which in the Ports of Italy, Sicily, Sardinia, or Malta ſhall have paſſed Quarantain, for which Certificates of the Magiſtrates ſhall be produced, may be admitted.

Whereas the Plague has always been brought from the Provinces of the Levant, to thoſe of Italy, France, and Spain; therefore at all Times, notwithſtanding the Commerce with France be intirely free, no Ships coming from the Levant beyond Venice ſhall be admitted into the Ports of Spain, unleſs it be made appear that they have firſt been admitted to Commerce by that Republick, or in ſome Port of Italy. This is to be underſtood of Goods ſuſceptible of Contagion; for as to Perſons and Corn, upon producing Certificates of Health they may be admitted with the uſual Precautions.

And whereas at Cadiz, and other Ports of Spain, they have not the Convenience of Lazarettos for purifying Goods brought from Provence, no Goods from thence ſhall be admitted into any ſuch Ports of Spain, unleſs it be made appear by Authentick Vouchers, that the ſame have paſſed Quarantain, either in Ports of Italy, or others of Spain where are Lazarettos.

Ships coming from the Ports of Languedoc, conſidering its Neighbourhood with Provence, ſhall be received in the ſame Manner, and perform a Quarantain of 20 Days.

All Goods brought by Land into Spain, from any Provinces where the Plague has not been, ſhall be admitted without Quarantain: But Goods brought by Land from Marſeilles and thereabouts, from Avignon, and from other Places where the Plague has been, ſhall be put under a Quarantain of 20 Days; and the ſame Precautions ſhall be obſerved towards them, as towards thoſe brought by Sea.

All Perſons who ſhall come by Land from the healthful Provinces, and by Roads free from Suſpicion, ſhall enter freely with their Equipages: But thoſe who come from Places or Provinces which have ſuffered by the Plague, ſhall for the preſent undergo a Quarantain of 20 Days, during which Time their Goods ſhall be put into Lazarettos to be aired, their wearing Cloaths and other Neceſſaries for their Uſe excepted.

Stockholm, July 10, O.S. Count Gyllenberg, the Chancellour of the Court, has by Order from the Senate notified to the foreign Miniſters here, the Reſolution which has been taken in the Diet to give the Title of Emperour to the Czar, and that of Royal Highneſs to the Duke of Holſtein; at the ſame time he notified the Reſtrictions which are annexed to the Compliment the Diet has thought fit to make to thoſe two Princes. The Title of Emperour, which is given to the Czar, is not in the leaſt to prejudice the Precedency, or in any wiſe to alter the Ceremonial eſtabliſhed between the two Courts of Sweden and Muſcovy; but his Czariſh Majeſty having expreſſed his great Deſire to have the Title of Emperour, the Diet has conſented he ſhould have that Title, which is to draw no other Conſequence after it, than that inſtead of Czar, he be for the future called Emperour. The Title of Royal Highneſs is not in the leaſt to prejudice his preſent Majeſty's Intereſt nor the Queen's, nor in any Manner to leſſen the Force and Vigour of the Act of Government, in which it is ſaid that the Succeſſion to the Crown after their Majeſties Deceaſe, ſhall be in all reſpects Elective. On the 5th Inſtant the Committee for the Finances of this Kingdom, gave in a Memorial, which was read: The ſaid Memorial contained an Exhortation to change all the Demeans of the Kingdom into Hereditary Eſtates, and to ſell the ſame to the beſt Bidders. The Ground of this is a Notion that the Lands will be better cultivated by their Proprietors, than by thoſe who poſſeſs them only at the good Pleaſure and Caprice of the Bailiffs, who aim at nothing elſe but to ſqueeze the Peaſants, by putting them in continual Fear of being deprived of their Lands, which the Bailiffs may eaſily do under ſeveral Pretences. The Reſolution upon this Affair was put off to another Day, all the Governours of the Provinces having oppoſed the Project. On the 6th the Queſtion, whether the Cuſtoms ſhould be farmed out or not, was determined. The Clergy, Burghers and Peaſants had given it as their Opinion, ſome Days before, that it was for the publick Good the Cuſtoms ſhould remain under the Adminiſtration of the Officers of the Kingdom, as not conceiving that private Perſons would ever hazard the taking of the Cuſtoms to Farm, without propoſing thereby a very conſiderable Advantage to themſelves, a Gain, which they thought, ought to be left to the Crown. The Matter was put to the Vote, and the Noes carried it by a great Majority, ſo that the Cuſtoms remain as before. It was this Day propoſed to depute 300 Perſons out of all the Nobility to form a Diet of the Aſſembly of the Nobles; in ſuch ſort that the other 700 ſhould have neither Voice nor Place in future Diets. As this Propoſition ſeemed to have no other View but the Suppreſſion of the new Nobility (in as much as the ancient Families would not fail to be choſen to form the ſaid Deputation of 300) it was rejected with a great deal of Noiſe.

Hague, Aug. 6. The States General having reſolved to ſend M. Peſters to His Britannick Majeſty, Orders were diſpatched the 30th paſt for his coming hither from Bruſſels to receive his Inſtructions: He arrived here laſt Night, and will ſoon ſet out for Hanover. Their High Mightineſſes have ſent Orders to M. Hop, their Miniſter at Paris, to make Inſtances at the French Court, that the ſame Prohibition which the Subjects of Great Britain and of theſe Provinces are under, from concerning themſelves directly or indirectly in the Oſtend India-Company, may be publiſhed in that Kingdom. The Imperial Miniſter Count Staremberg, with his Lady, arrrived here the 31ſt paſt, and on the 2d Inſtant in the Morning proceeded for Hanover. M. de Starrenburg, Preſident of the Committeerde Raede, died this Morning: It is thought M. de Noortwyck will ſucceed him in his Place of Preſident. Yeſterday the Markgrave of Baden Dourlach arrived here incognito, going by the Name of Colonel Brown; he deſigns to make a Tour to the chief Places of this Country.

The Managers and Directors of the Lottery for the Year 1723, having by an Advertisement in the printed Paper of Benefits which were drawn at Guildhall on Monday the 29th of July last (being the last Day of Drawing,) published, That they were not then able with any Certainty to adjust the Last Drawn Ticket till they had Recourse to their Books and Registers at Whitehall, and examined their Entries and Files there: Now the said Managers and Directors having accordingly entred upon the Examination of the said Books and Files, did find upon the second File of the Blank Tickets of the first Day's Drawing, a Ticket drawn a Benefit which happened by Accident to be put upon the said Blank instead of the Benefit File, and that the said Benefit Ticket so put on the Blank File was Number 36m012, and entituled to Five Hundred Pounds Principal Money, as appears by the Ticket annexed to the said Number; so that the whole Number of Benefits have been actually drawn: Therefore as the Last Drawn Ticket is to be the Numbred Ticket drawn next and immediately after the Benefit Ticket which was last drawn, The said Managers and Directors do declare that the Ticket No 1796 is entituled to the Sum of One Thousand Pounds Principal Money, as being so last drawn.

Sign'd by Order of the said Managers and Directors.
